

(Friday: Diagramming)

compound sentences (connect independent clauses at verbs)

compound parts

These basics will help you through most of your DGP sentences for the year. If you need more help, check a grammar book or the internet. One good website to check out is webster.comnet.edu/grammar, but there are hundreds out there!

Use the the back of this page to take notes about any additional information you look up.

Appendix B

How to mark your sentences

n = common noun
N = proper noun
poss n = possessive noun pron = personal pronoun nom = nominative
 obj = objective
 poss = possessive
adj = adjective
int = interjection
av = action verb
lv = linking verb
hv = helping verb
 pres = present tense
 past = past tense
 f = future tense
adv = adverb
prep = preposition
cc = coordinating conjunction cor conj = correlative conjunction

— = complete subject s = simple subject
— = complete predicate
v = simple predicate () = prepositional phrase op = object of preposition com = complement
ss = simple sentence
cd = compound sentence
dec = declarative sentence exc = exclamatory sentence int = interrogative sentence imp = imperative sentence ^ ^ ^ = insert end punctuation ^ = insert comma
 v v = insert apostrophe or quotation marks
— = underline/italicize ≡ = capitalize